

Women Raising Up Liberation Theology

Who were the women who put Liberation Theology into practice in Latin America during the Cold War, when standing with the poor could mean risking your life?

What can we learn from these women in our own turbulent times?

WOMEN IN CONVERSATION
at NEWMAN - HOLY SPIRIT

Mary Jo McConahay

is a prize-winning Catholic journalist, author and documentary filmmaker whose reporting has centered on social justice, human rights, the environment, and the Catholic Church.

Saturday, May 18th, 2024 9:00 am - noon

Newman Hall Lounge and via Zoom. This is a hybrid event and is for women only.

If you have questions please contact: Susan Grant susan@suegrant.net or Jean Molesky-Poz moleskypo@mac.com

(Event begins at 9:30 am, coffee & social at 9:00 am. Bring something to share!)

